Re: United States v. Natalya Shvarts
No. 20 Cr. 681 (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Cronan:

I represent Natalya Shvarts in the above-captioned action. I respectfully seek to join in the motion of counsel for Marianna Levin and I request the same 30-day adjournment of the upcoming January 18, 2022 motions deadline in this matter, for many of the same reasons.

In addition, my ability to review the discovery with Ms. Shvarts in anticipation of motion practice was adversely impacted by my contracting Covid over the latter part of December and early part of January. I have not been in my office since December 18, and have had to postpone our in-person meeting until late next week.

Finally, the additional time is necessary because I have been discussing a possible resolution of the case with the government, which may obviate the need for motion practice.

I have spoken to AUSA Daniel Nessim on behalf of the government, and he consents to the extension of time for Ms. Shvarts.

Defendant Shvart's request is granted. The Court adjourns the January 18, 2022, motion deadline as to Ms. Shvarts only until February 17, 2022, to allow for additional time to meet and confer with the Government and to review the discovery with her counsel.

The Court will keep the conference for Ms. Shvarts, and the other defendants, currently scheduled for February 18, 2022, at 11:00 a.m. At that conference, the Court will discuss whether any filed motions require argument or an evidentiary hearing, and also ask for a status of this case from the Defendants and the Government.

SO ORDERED.

Respectfully submitted,
